

any committee talking of passing law compelling autos to be locked while standing alone.

Gustave Whick, 18, 7102 Lexington av., arrested as check forger.

Frank Trupja, 937 W. Chicago av.; Albert Sardonski, 1226 W. Chicago av., and Chas. Henninger, 821 W. 35th st., severely injured when Ashland av. car struck wagon at 45th st.

5,000 delegates expected to arrive here tomorrow and Monday to attend convention of Electric Ry. Ass'n, Oct. 7.

College and university women athletes will play indoor baseball in bloomers at benefit for Wm. Rugh, Gary newsman, who gave his leg to Miss Smith.

Wm. Watterson, 6219 Washington blvd., struck by auto at Clark st. and Jackson blvd. Severely injured.

Harry Pussin, 15, 1838 W. North av., struck by auto at Newberry av. and 12th st. Seriously injured.

Weare Parsons, 4105 W. Washington blvd., wants divorce. Says wife is "musical maniac."

Mrs. Alice Adams, 7516 Coles av., S. Chicago, still missing.

W. E. Korten, 6722 Union av., dead. Carbolic acid. Suicide.

Earl Shaumbaugh, actor, alleged to have fled from Albany, N. Y., Sunday, with $1,500 belonging to the show, arrested.

A. K. Leuyties, 1556 N. Clark st., suicide. Carbolic acid. Ill health.

Michael Mastanardo, 5051 Armour av., struck by L., S. & M. S.

Ry. train at 52d st. Killed. John Ritto, same address, died at hospital.

Thompson Phosphate Co. fined $25 and costs. Arsenic in phosphate they sold.

Nearly $3,000,000 will be paid out during regular quarterly pension period which started here yesterday.

E. J. Carroll, 3246 Washington blvd., arrested because he couldn't pay taxicab bill of $15.20. Brother paid it. Released.

Gus Peterson, restaurant keeper, 1802 S. Halsted st., arrested on complaint of Joseph Biska, 1908 S. Union st., who says Gus threw him out when he complained of tough beefsteak. Fined $100 and costs.

Herman Stryzka, 3221 S. Morgan st., arrested on complaint of Mrs. Katherine Meyer, 3146 Rhodes ave., who says he struck her with pair of shoes when she wanted to return them. $5 and costs.

Mrs. A. E. Taylor, wife of professor of physiological chemistry at U. of P., fell from third story window of Auditorium Hotel to sidewalk on Congress st. Killed. Police believe suicide. Husband says accidental.

"Fake" telephone man netted home of Mrs. S. Loizzo, 1380 E. 62nd st., choked her and robbed her of $25.85.

Two thousand Greeks of Chicago colony will leave here Monday to New York, where they will sail to answer Grecian call to arms in Balkan war.